NEWS OF THE BALL FIELD, RACE TRACK AND PRIZE RING.

The Game To-Day-Will the Buffish Team be Transferred to This City? Opening the Trotting Season The Myers-Hopper Set-to.

The Washingtons will inaugurate the second week of the championship season to-day by a game with the Jersey City team. That team is justly considered one of the strongest in the Association and the local team will have to put up its best quality of ball in order to win a game from it. Phillips will probably pitch for the local team. -

The old story about the transfer of the Buffalo team to this city is being revived. There may be something in it, but it is doubtful. In the first place the baseball patrons of this city are not sympathizers with the Brotherhood and its methods, and the venture would hardly be a profitable one to its backers. Moreover, the public became disgusted at the playing of the team last year, and the fact that it was in another organization would not gain it any new friends.

The Pittsburg League Club has shown its weakness in transferring its games with Chicago from its own city Chicago in order to avoid a conflict with the Brotherhood team. This is the first weakening on the part of the League and it is sure to react un-favorably. The team ought to be compelled to remain in its own city, even if it had to play to empty benches. There cannot be any retreat from the fighting schedule this early in the season. If necessary, the other League Clubs ought to combine to assist the unlucky Pittsburgers. It was a miatake to retain that city, anyhow, in preference to Washington, and the League people are beginning to find it Harry Mace, who was released by Washington, has sig all with the Rich-mond club. Hirata Wright, a wellknown local player, has also gone with the same team.

The much-anticipated mill between Jack Hopper and Billy Myers, which was to have taken place at Willard Hall was to have taken place at Willard Hall to-night, has been postponed. It will take place at Lannon's Opera House, in Alexandria, on Wednesday night. Manager Cheney, in order to make the entertainment more lively, offers $25 to any one whom Ed. Myers (Billy's brother) cannot best in four rounds. Myers weighs 125 pounds and will allow his opponent ten pounds.

There is considerable interest manifested in the outcome of the meeting. The go is to be a ten-round one, with gloves, and will undoubtedly be the most scientific exhibition that has ever been given in this city. Considerable additional interest is given to the mill, for the reason that, instead of being a mere friendly exhibition, it will be for the gate receipts, the winner taking seventy-five per cent, and the loser twenty-five. Both men are in superb condition, and, if the exhibition is not interfered with, it will be pretty lively before the tenth round is reached.

Both Myers and Hopper have stood before McAuliffe and succeeded in making a draw of it; so both are in the front ranks of light-weights and claiming championship honors. It ought to be a rattling good go, and the outcome will probably lead to a finish fight between the two.

The backers of Joe Fielden and Billy Young are to hold a meeting to night to see what the chances are for bringing the two together. Such a fight would attract as much attention as the North-edge McMillan fight if it could be brought off, but it is utterly impossible that the men will ever be matched. It is a match which Fielden, by his own actions, has repeatedly avoided, and it is not likely he will change his mind at ment for a fight. Mike Raedy is still talking tight and leclaring that he proposes challenging Northedge, but as yet he has not made any substantial indication of his pur-Whether he will or not ren to be seen, but if the two men should be matched it would make a rattling McMillan was outdoors Saturday looking none the worse for his fight with Northedge, while his victorious antagonist was compelled to remain in-doors and doctor his badly-damaged physiognomy.

Charles Brown, a colored pugilist of ocal fame, who is known as "the Norfolk Blacksmith," authorizes THE Christo issue a challenge to any 160-pound colored fighter in Washington. Brown was trained by Northedge, winner of the recent fight. He fought and defeated the "Unknown" in three rounds, stopped Broadus in two rounds, and participated in other battles. He is particularly anxious to meet Charley Langston, "the Bootblack."

The trotting season begins this year unusually early, as the sport begins tomorrow at Bennings over the track of the Washington Jockey club. It will last four days and will include ten races. There are in the neighborhood of fifty horses entered, and some good sport and fair fields may be looked for. The following is the full programme, by which it will be seen that owners have given a liberal support to the initial meeting:

A number of interested persons visited the track yesterday to get lines on the events, but there was very little speeding done. Notwithstanding the rain the track is in excellent condition, and so good racing can be expected. Auction and mutual pools and book-making will give the talent plenty of opportunities to back their judgment. Everything points to a successful meet-ing and make the new South Eastern Trotting Circuit a permanent establish-ment. The races begin each day at 3 o'clock and special trains will be run.

ENJOYING COOLING BREEZES.

The New Electric Railroad Brings Hundreds to the Country.

The glorious weather of yesterday morning and the early afternoon caused the capacity of the new Georgetown and Tennallytown Electric Railroad to be fully tested and many hundreds of persons spent the day on the picturesque heights or strolling in the valleys near pretty St. Albans Church. The road near the temporary terminus, which is usually deserted on Sunday, save for the numerous teams, was crowded all day yesterday with merry children and ladies in gay spring costumes. Wild flowers were gathered in profusion and pretty faces peeped over the neighboring fences or looked in at the gates with pleading eyes, and the "Just a little bit of lilac, please," was seldom refused.

It is said that several public gardens will be opened along the line of the road in the near future. The Washington Inn, which has been named the Woodley Inn, will soon begin business woodley inn, will soon begin a James under the proprietorship of Mr. James R. Keenan, the efficient and popular manager of the Shoreham. Driving parties and "electric road" parties will then be in order, and ice cream and cake on the lawn will make smooth the ways of summer evening flirtations. Another electric car will arrive this week, and this will be followed by ten more, which are now in course of construction. Washington has been long noted for the politeness of its street rallroad conductors, but none more po-lite can be found than the officials of the new electric line, and the managers are to be congratulated on their selec-

A LONG HORSEBACK RIDE.

Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Receivers on their Travels.

After riding on horseback over the entire length of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, a distance of 184 miles, with the exception of a strip of about twenty miles, the receivers of the canal company reached Washington Saturday night in muddy and tired condition They had the appearance somewhat of a party of irregular cavalry that had been on an extended raid through mud, rain and wind, and attracted much attention as they rode through the streets.

Their jurisdiction only extended to Their jurisdiction only extended to the District line, with the exception of the boat property in Georgetown, which was examined. They also paid their respects to Henry C. Winship, a Georgetown receiver, and left yesterday afternoon for Hagerstown, where they will make a tabulated statement of their inspection, with estimates of putting the enal in condition again. the canal in condition again. This re-port will be made to Chief Justice

The receivers are of the opinion that one of the greatest breaks in the canal, and one that will run the cost of repairs into large figures, is the damaged log wall just below the Great Falls. The log wall is broken out for a long distance, and is damaged more severely than at any time since 1857

The party consisted of Mr. Robert Bridges of Hancock, Md., Colonel R. D. Johnson of Cumberland and Joseph this time and give Billy a chance at him. Still it is to be hoped that to-night's meeting will result in an agree port; Major H. D. Whitcomb of Richmond, T. J. Kingsley of Syracuse, N. Y., and Colonel T. L. INSANITY AND WILD FLOWER."

A Colored Woman's Queer Plea in the Police Court, "Guilty or not guilty?" asked Bailiff Kendig of a rather dilapidated-looking character of the female persuasion as she was ushered into the Police Court dock this morning. "Gentlemen, I'se insane, I is, and uffer from hysterics and wild flower. Please send me to the asylum."

'When did you get out of the workhouse?" asked the judge.
"Let's see," remarked the woman, as she commenced to count up the years on her fingers. "Six years ago, but I don't want to go down there again or to the hospital either."

The woman's proper name is Annie Terrill, and she has only been out of the workhouse a very short time. Her home is in Tennallytown, and her father and brother reside there, but they cannot do anything with her. Annie was sent down to the workhouse again, and will probably be transferred from there to the asylum, where she can be properly cared for.

YESTERDAY'S STORM.

It Missed This City, But Played Havoc at Baltimore, Baltimore was visited by a very heavy hallstorm yesterday afternoon. Luckily Washington missed it, although there was a very heavy rainstorm here. The reasons for this are that following in the wake of the rainy weather the country experienced last week was a cold wave. The latter moved faster than the storm-centre and overtook it in Baltimore. Hence the hallstorm. Had it overtaken the centre an hour sooner Washington would have experienced the hailstorm instead of Balti-

LOCAL STOCKS.

Transactions on the Washington Stock Exchange-Notes and Gossip, There were a goodly number of sales on the Washington Stock Exchange on Saturday: The offerings of District bonds have een very meagre for several months, and now that rates for money begin again to be low it is not unlikely that the bid prices for such undoubted se-curities as these may be advanced. A 100 1891 6 per cent, bond sold for 103‡. This is absurdly low, as the accrued interest sold with the bond is about 2 per cent. For two shares of Eckington Railroad 86 was paid. With no stock of this kind offering the bid of 83 was but nominal. The only sale of insurance stock was 48 shares of Columbia at 18½. For a larger lot 18½ was bid. The lowest offering was at 19.

With no Riggs Insurance on the mar-ket but a nominal bid, 82, was recorded. For 200 shares of Columbia Title stock 62 was paid. The same price was bid for more and the lowest offering was at 7k.

The first sale of Washington Gas stock of any importance for several weeks was made Saturday. The lot was 30 shares. It brought 44 ex-dividend, the transfer books having been closed, prior to the May dividend, since the 15th instant. For several years Pennsylvania Tele phone stock has but seldom been sold on account of the greatly depressed price. Hard times in the coal region or bad management, or both, caused the dividends to be decreased from 8 per cent. regular and 2 per cent. extra to 4 per cent., at which rate the dividend recently paid was made. In those days the stock brought as high as 70. It is believed that the necessity for low divi-dends exists no longer, and that the company is gaining quite largely in receipts and net profits, and that had a full board been on hand at the last meeting the dividend would have been increased to 5 per cent. from 4, which has been paid for some time. This stock sold on Saturday to the extent of 100 shares at 284. If the dividend should be increased to 5 per cent., or 284, the stock would yield nearly 9 per cent. In the nature of thing it must advance in price.

things it must advance in price.

The meeting of the Pneumatic Gun Carriage Company on Saturday for the election of directors was so harmonlous and the disclosures so encouraging that the stock advanced on the board 33 per cent, or from 75 cents per share to $1.
For 200 shares $1 per share was paid and the bid was continued at this price.
The offering was at 14.

Averaging Security and Trust Steels

When it is considered that the business of the company has been in operation but four months and that the capital was paid in in installments, the directors and officers may be congratu-lated on having scored a substantial success in being able to show net profits of $16,250.03.

There appears to be no U. S. Electric Light stock for sale at 114½, the bid price. The lowest offering is at 120. and but a few shares at any price. The buyer of $15,000 of the U.S. Electric bonds at 1161, which at will can be converted into 150 shares of the 8 per cent. stock, paid what was thought a full price for the bonds, because he knew the stock could be acquired in no other way. The stock in the quantity he wanted it could not be had.

TALMAGE'S NEW TABERNAULE,

Some Doubts as to Whether It Will Ever be Built, BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 28.—It doesn't look as though T. DeWitt Talmage was going to get his new Tabernacle. This is the opinion of some of his closest friends and parishioners. They say the Talmage boom is over. The name of the famous preacher no longer wields the potent influence over pecket books that it once did. Tal mage has as many admirers as of yore, perhaps, but they either have little money or their admiration is confined to his utterances. There are thousands of Americans who like to read Tal-mage, just as they like to read Mark Twain or Bill Nye. But they are not persuaded into financial expenditure by the Brooklyn clergyman any more than they would invest because the big humorists recommended it.

The truth is, Mr. Talmage has been injured by the recent stories about his wealth and the enormous sums he makes out of his sermons, lectures and literary contributions. People say if he makes so much money so easily he can afford to give his services on Sunday to the cause he professes to love so ardently. cause he professes to love so ardently. These same people say a new Tabernacle is not necessary, and ought not to be built. They think Tsimage can do more good on the platform of a public hall than from a pulpit of his own. He can afford to preach just the same, because he receives several hundred dollars of the same because he receives several hundred dollars. lars each week from a syndicate for stenographic reports of his addresses. His heart is for humanity, he says, and humanity will take more interest in his heart if he gives it freely to the

This is the argument. Another reason is also advanced against a new Talmage Tabernacle. It is said the management is sure to be bad in the future, as it was in the past. The fallure to have the old Tabernacle properly insured is con-sidered a very bad piece of business. It betokens lack of shrewd and sagactous business methods. Had the struc-ture that was destroyed by fire a few months ago been insured for anywhere near its real value it would not require much more than the insurance to secure a new church sufficient for all purposes But, either from a belief that Provi dence would look after Talmage or from mistaken economy, the amount of in-surance was ridiculously small. The Talmage congregation is a variable quantity. The membership this year is not the membership next. It is this fact that causes discredit to be thrown upon the assertion that the Tabernacle has the largest membership of any church in America. People join under impulse and are never heard of again. Their names remain on the books, but the individuals are not in sight. The pews are free, consequently the entire congregation becomes a floating element that neither the pastor nor the elders can keep track of.

Fined and Sent Back,

Hence Herbert, a colored man, who was on the 14th instant sent to the workhouse for thirty days for disorderly conduct, and who made his escape the following day, was apprehended last night by Officer Redgrave. He was found carefully stowed away under a bed in his house on Twenty third street In the Police Court this morning Her bert was charged with an assault which was committed the day after he escaped from the workhouse, and Judge Miller fined him $10 for the assault, in addi tion to sending him back to serve ou his old sentence.

I became emaciated from loss of appetite and inpaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood." - Charles H. Maloney, 113 River st.,
